

Strike Team Deployment Updates

July 24, 2015: County Fire Strike Team CNT 2310C was deployed to the Wragg Fire in Napa and Solano Counties.

July 27, 2015: Strike Team 2310C was then demobed from the Wragg Fire and reassigned to the Lowell Fire in Nevada County.

July 31, 2015: County Fire deployed our OES engine (OES289) to the Humboldt Lightening Complex.

July 31, 2015: Two paramedics were deployed as Fireline Paramedics to the Rocky Incident in Lake County.

August 1, 2015: 2310C was then deployed to the Rocky Fire.

August 6, 2015: Strike team relief crew were sent to the Rocky Fire to replace existing strike team.

August 7, 2015: OES 289, as part of Strike Team 2807A was assigned to Cal Fire's Anderson Mobilization Center

August 8, 2015: Strike Team XSC 2310C was deployed to Fork Complex out of the Anderson Mobilization center. Working on putting out approximately 40 fires that were all ignited by lightning on July 30, 2015.

August 9, 2015: Paramedics assigned to the Rocky Fire were reassigned to the Jerusalem Incident. The Jerusalem Incident is a new start in LNU and has burned 2000 acres in two hours, and is burning south west of the Rocky Incident.

August 17, 2015: County Fire has strike team crews are at the Fork Complex, South Complex, and Humboldt Complex fires.

August 19, 2015: County Fire 2310C was returning from Fork Complex Fire and was detoured to the Tesla Fire near Livermore. A Incident Communications Manager and Radio Operator remained at the Fork Complex Fire. County Fire also sent a firefighter as PIO to Cuesta Fire.

August 20, 2015: 2310C returned home from Telsa Fire.

August 24, 2015: County Fire has sent firefighters to the South Complex fire, Fork Complex fire, Cuesta fire, Rough fire, Route Complex fire, and Washington State.

August 25, 2015: 2310C deployed to the Mad River Complex.

September 3, 2014: County Fire has resources at the Rough, Route Complex, Gasquet Complex, and Okanogan Complex Fires. Okanogan Complex Fire is in Washington.

Summarized updates ended Sept 3, 2015.

For the list of updated and archived updates visit xsc.sccfd.org