INCIDENT SUMMARY

Incident Summary:	At approximately 4:51a.m., Santa Clara County Fire Department was dispatched to report of a fire in a residence on the 10800 block of Mora Drive, in Los Altos Hills. Upon arrival, firefighters found smoke and fire coming from the front of a split-level, single family residence. Three occupants had been inside the residence and were safely outside when crews arrived. Firefighters were able to quickly controll the fire within approximately 20 minutes and rescued one cat from the home. A second cat was later found safe inside the garage. The home sustained fire damage to approximately 50% of the structure, and smoke and water damage throughout. There were no injuries to firefighters or residents. Cause of the fire is under investigation but is not considered suspicious; crews remain on scene for cleanup. Three residents were displaced by the fire but did not require assistance. Residents in the home at the time of the fire reported being awoken and alerted to the fire by the smoke alarms in the house. Santa Clara County Fire Department reminds all residents to ensure working smoke alarms are installed in every bedroom, outside of each sleeping area and on every level of the home.
Road Closures:	Mora Drive remains closed from Terry Way to Sunhills Drive
