INCIDENT SUMMARY
Incident Summary:	At approximately 10:55 p.m. firefighters responded to a report of a structure fire in an unincorporated hillside neighborhood above downtown Los Gatos. Upon arrival firefighters found a single family residence with a well established fire burning through the structure. 2 people were home at the time, and one adult female was injured as a result of the fire. She was transported to a local hospital with serious but non-life threatening injuries. In addition, two firefighters were transported to the hospital as a precaution. One firefighter has subsequently been released from the hospital and one is being held for additional observation. Firefighters were able to contain the fire in approximately 30-minutes and there was no spread to the surrounding vegetation.
