

LOCAL FIRE SERVICE AND RESCUE MUTUAL AID PLAN

APPENDIX 10 - TRAINING AGREEMENT Revised Date: January 2017 Next Revision: January 2019

Santa Clara County fire service agencies agree that it would be mutually beneficial to engage in joint training and/or exercises in order to familiarize personnel with procedures, techniques, and equipment.

The participating agencies which would provide convenient and useful training sites for the members of the Local Fire Service and Rescue Mutual Aid Plan agree as follows:

1. The participating agencies agree to make training facilities available for the purpose of local mutual aid training for disasters, fire rescue, hazardous materials, wildland fires, and emergency medical services, and other mutual aid training.
2. Each agency shall be responsible for any liability arising out of acts or omissions of such jurisdiction, its officers, agents, and employers under this agreement and agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless each and every other agency, its officers, employees, and agents from any liability for such acts or omissions.

The following provisions shall apply:

- California Government Code Section 895.6
- California Emergency Services Act (Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code 1970 Statutes)
- California Master Mutual Aid Agreement
- Labor Code, State of California (Section 3211.92, Disaster Service Worker)
- Government Code, State of California (Section 8690.60)
